RE: Letter of Recommendation for Nikki Bray

To Whom It May Concern:

It is an honor and privilege for me to write a letter recommending an individual I feel is truly outstanding. My understanding is that Nikki Bray has applied for the position of Instructional Designer and Training Specialist with your University. Without reservation, I can state that Nikki epitomizes the qualities of an outstanding leader, visionary, and professional. She is a very hard worker who has always exemplified outstanding qualities of personality, character, and scholarship.

First, Nikki's personality is most pleasing. Being amiable, she is well-liked by everyone with whom she comes in contact. Her wonderful personality served her well during her years as Athletic Director and Head Girls' Basketball Coach at Memphis Central High School.

Second, Nikki's character is unparalleled. She is honest and reflects high moral and ethical values. It goes without saying that she was one of the best Athletic Director's and basketball coaches in our state before her departure. Her knowledge and willingness to help others was a tremendous benefit to those individuals she led in West Tennessee.

Third, Nikki has always been an exemplary person. Her knowledge and dedication earned her the highest accolades in our profession – that being the total respect of her peers.

Finally, Nikki's integrity, maturity, and compassion for humanity make her a wonderful and remarkable individual. She will be an asset to any organization.

Sincerely,

Bernard Childress
Executive Director
